Podcast 2020, Remembering Srebrenica

Message Heard

Over the course of a mid-Summer week in July 1995, more than 8,000 men and boys were systematically killed in a small Bosnian town called Srebrenica. Untold Killing tells the little-known story of genocide and ethnic cleansing right in the heart of Europe through the voices of those who survived it. It's a tale of betrayal, injustice, and what the world's willful ignorance towards ethnic persecution leads to.

A co-production from Message Heard and Remembering Srebrenica.

Hosted by Aleksandra Bilić.
