Darling, Your Face Is Turning White

Adrian Oktenberg

Darling, your face is turning white becoming featureless an untracked field of snow Your eyes which once burned like blue sky are flattening out memory fails us both I curse my failing memory try to catch it it disappears around a bend another another The exact timbre of your voice the gesture that moved me so the way your laughter began deep in your chest in your chest three pieces of shrapnel were buried three years ago
